

Fabulous Fours

May 2017

A hero is not someone who never falls, but who gets up again and again.

Here's hoping that we are done with all the rain, so we can have much more fun in the sun, outside! Fresh air and exercise is so important for children, helping them feel refreshed and ready to learn. I hope to have many outdoor related studies this month.

Details to follow soon about a special Mother's Day event!
